

SALE OF RED SOX

IS NOT A SURPRISE

Lannin's Elimination Foreseen After Attack He Made on Integrity of the Umpires.

FULTZ'S CHARGE DENIED

BY J. ED GRILLO.

The sale of the Boston American League club by Joseph Lannin does not come as a surprise to those familiar with the affairs of the junior league.

It has been stated in these columns for some time that Lannin was to get out of the league before another season rolled around, because of his denigration during the last campaign that if his team was defeated in the pennant race it would be because of the deliberate efforts of the staff of umpires.

Shortly after that the tip came out of Chicago that this was the last season Joe Lannin would be in charge of the Boston club.

H. H. Frazee, George M. Anderson and Hugh Ward, who make up the syndicate which purchased the club from Lannin, all are personal friends of President Ben Johnson of the American League. They are a trio of good sportsmen, of great wealth, who have been long and successful in the ownership of one of the major league circuits.

Frazee's first effort in sports was when he arranged the full-time combination after Jeff had been matched with Jack Johnson. Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler, was one of the attractions, and Frazee made a pile of money showing the big champions around the country.

The combination showed at Convention Hall in this city. Jeffries was not permitted to box with his sparring partner, but gave an exhibition of shadow boxing.

While there are hints that August Herrmann will be deposed as chairman of the national commission, it is not likely this will come to pass.

Herrmann has proved himself a most competent official ever since his selection to the office thirteen years ago. There have been many who identified with the national game and if it is left to the club owners of the two major leagues, the American and National, the commission Herrmann stands an excellent chance of succeeding himself.

The president of the two major leagues, Johnson and Tener, are members of the commission in accordance with the agreement which created it, and if the sixteen club owners should vote for Herrmann as the third member, the commission would be a deadlock between the other two members of the commission would allow Herrmann to succeed.

Dave Fultz, in replying to Ban Johnson regarding the names of the clubs which drew the last night, identified players injured on the ball field, mentioned New York and Washington, and said that the club owners had no part in this statement this morning and he said:

FIRST ROUND PLAYED

Initial Matches in Golf Event at Chevy Chase Ended.

PICKFORD CAPTURES TITLE

BY H. C. BYRD.

Technical and Western are to meet tomorrow in the high school series. The game will serve to give a comparative line between Tech and Central, which now look to be the strongest of the five eleven contests for the scholarship title. The two teams meet at American League Park at 3:15, the place and times of all the games.

Tech should defeat Western. The Red and White made a splendid showing against Central, notwithstanding the latter's decisive victory; but whether or not it can come back and play good foot ball against another eleven much heavier is a question. Western can hardly expect to win against a team composed of players so much older and more experienced.

The Manual Trainers may be expected to show better form tomorrow than when they appeared against Eastern. They will not be so overconfident and probably were benefited in many ways from being held to such a close score. Tech came mighty close to getting a quietus put on its championship aspirations in that contest with Eastern, but it hardly wants to again to come that near losing to a weaker team.

George Washington and Catholic University scrimmaged for nearly an hour yesterday, both teams showing greater strength than in any of the games they have played. The practice was spirited and the work of each eleven was very satisfactory to the coaches. George Washington is developing a strong defense, and a much better offense with each day's work. Yesterday it gave the Brooklanders plenty in the way of real work. Mims was back in a halfback position for George Washington, and Giacomo was at the other half. Both did some good ground gaining. O'Rourke, C. U.'s new halfback, also starred in this particular. Munnah, the C. U. back, who has been out with a bad knee, got back into the scrimmage and showed that he had lost none of his ability in carrying the ball. Harmon and Kerr, George Washington's tackles, played some fine foot ball on the defensive.

The Maryland State College squad visited Gaillardet and went through an hour's scrimmage with the Kendall Green aggregation. The two teams at times played pretty good foot ball, but at others were ragged. The State eleven was much heavier than the Kendall Green players, but the latter were faster. Marshall did some good carrying of the ball. Harmon and Kerr, George Washington's tackles, played some fine foot ball on the defensive.

"Haggy" Ellis, former George Washington University halfback, has done remarkably well with the material at his disposal at Gaillardet. Just how much he has accomplished is shown by his statistics in his games. The first contest resulted in a defeat by 54 to 0, but the second was a wide margin and the third a defeat by only three points. Right now the team is just about as good as it can be. Despite the fact that Ellis started his season with only two members of the 1915 regulars in line for positions, he has developed a clever attack and a defense better than is usual.

Several players rolled good scores in the duckpin leagues last night. There were no exceptionally high marks registered in any of the circuits, but for consistency the part of all the teams the performances seldom have been surpassed. There was hardly a match in which some player did not get more than 100 in each of his three games.

Out in the Northeast League the Raftery team took three straight games from the Freemans. Work of the winners, rolling in lead-off position, got marks of 106, 115 and 109. Watkins did some accurate shooting for the Allies in the Fourth Street League, knocking down 123 pins in his opening contest, and in his second and 103 in the third. The Allies captured two of the three games.

Some of Best Bowlers.

Here are some of those who surpassed the century figure in all their contests: Jackson of King's Palace in the Arcade League; Toms and Lucke of the Princeton and Keene of the Newtons, in the Mount Pleasant circuit; Berry of the Southlands, Duckett of Entomology, Jessup of the Chi quito, McCormick of the Mayas, Campbell of the Southern Railway, Chapin of the Columbians and Chaconas and Acton of the Grand Central, all in the same match; Jacobs of the Belmonts of the three contests; the Commissioners and Byrne of Land.

It remained for two players in the Belmont circuit to get the highest best work. William rolled a 100 in the game of the night. Coe of the National quito, rolling against the Dawdalls, got in his opening game, 141 in his second and 108 in his final. Despite the fine rolling of Coe the Nationals dropped two of their three contests. Pen-Galpa took two out of three from the G. C. Whiting Lodge, Ewers doing the Belmonts. Stansbury had a game of 150 for Acadia. Stansbury five, winning every game with ease.
